

Circumnavigators Club Chicago Chapter

Circumnavigators Club on May 19 at Adventurers Club

Speaker: David Gifford "Off the Map: Bootstrapping Adventure in South America"

For nearly 20 months combined, David Gifford has traveled solo across South America - absorbing various cultures and making an abundance of new friends along the way. His experiences are extremely vast - including teaching in Buenos Aires, bicycling from Argentina and Chile, visiting the salt flats and a Japanese town in Bolivia, taking Portuguese lessons in Rio and traversing the Inca Trail in Peru. Come and join us as he tells us some amazing stories and shares photos of his travels.

Adventurers Club: founded in 1911 and boasts Teddy Roosevelt as its 37th member. Over the last century, a remarkable host of artifacts and memorabilia have been donated to the Club and will offer a unique opportunity for Circumnavigators to browse and assimilate.

The Adventurers Club now occupies a 6th floor loft at 714 S. Dearborn (west side of street). Upon entering the 1st floor lobby you will see a buzzer on the right wall that will signal an attendant to come down to operate the elevator.

Upon entering the Club be prepared for an unusual experience!
